

C

- Cainston Park Property at Wauchope belong to Mr & Mrs Geoff Smith (see Govt. Gazette 20 July 1945, p.1259)
- Cairncross
Gazetted: 6 Apr 1973
(1) A parish (lands administrative division).
(2) A trig. station about 4km SW of the locality of Ballengarra.
- Cairncross
Gazetted: 16 Apr 1993
(1) A parish (lands administrative division).
(2) A trig. station about 4km SW of the locality of Ballengarra. A locality about 20km north of Wauchope and about 6km west of Telegraph Point.

(3) The locality of Bellangry adjoins to the west.
References: Place of Banishment p.40: "From the edge of the bank we could see Mount Cairncross, a remarkable round - topped hill, which is conspicuously seen from the coast over the entrance to the port." See also Caoulapatamba, Mount Cairncross.
- Cairncross Place Named after Mount Cairncross in the Hastings. This mountain was named by John Oxley in 1819.
- Cairncross Road Station east of Mt. Cairncross, on the Telegraph Point - Rollands Plains Road.
- Cairncross State Forest
Gazetted: 6 Apr 1973
State Forest in the Wauchope Forestry District Area about 4916h.
- Caithness Property of Mrs M. Dennis, Tacking Point Road, 1.75 miles (2.8km) from P.O. - cottage of 5 rooms, kitchen, 4 verandas, 3 acres, fruit trees- For sale £690 (see PMN, 7 Oct 1922).
- Caleary Hill
Gazetted: 14 Nov 1980
A hill rising about 230 m from Ellenborough River. About 4km WSW of Ellenborough and about 11km ESE of Yarras.
- Calleen Farm 5km southwest of Logans Crossing. Farm 3km W of Kendall.
- Calmack Farm, east of the Old Coast Road, 5km west of Kundabung.
- Calwalla Crescent Aboriginal word meaning 'water running out.'
- Calwalla Reserve
Gazetted: 28 Aug 1992
A reserve bounded by Calwalla Crescent and Parklands Avenue, Port Macquarie.

Cambro	Farm, on the Old Coast Road, 5km west of Kundabung.
Camden Haven Gazetted: 22 Dec 1972	(1) A trig. station about 2km SW by W of Laurieton. (2) Headland south of Perpendicular Point, near the mouth of the Camden Haven River. Named after John Jeffries Pratt Camden (Lord Camden), Secretary for War and Colonies 1804-05. In 1812 he became Surveyor General of the Colony. (3) A general name for the area around Laurieton, North Haven etc.
Camden Haven Apex Park Gazetted: 25 Sep 1987	A reserve beside the Camden Haven Inlet at Laurieton.
Camden Haven Inlet Gazetted: 22 Dec 1972	An inlet which forms the main artery of the system of lakes and waterways which constitutes 'Camden Haven', extends from Watson Taylors Lake in a generally NE direction for 9km to the Pacific Ocean. Origin: Camden Haven was named by John Oxley, after Lord Camden. (see Wells, William Henry. A Geographical Dictionary or Gazetteer of the Australian Colonies 1848).
Camden Haven Rotary Park Gazette: 9 Jan 1987	A reserve about 1.5km SW of Laurieton and about 2km WNW of Deauville. Previous name Rotary Park.
Camden Haven State Forest	State Forest in Taree Forestry District, area about 705 hectares.
Camden Head Gazetted: 10 Feb 1978	A headland south of the entrance to Camden Haven inlet, 2.5km E of the village of Dunbogan. It comprises all of the high land to the east of Gogleys Lagoon, including Perpendicular Point which is its NE extremity. Named after John Jeffries Pratt Camden (Lord Camden), Secretary for War and Colonies 1804-05. In 1812 he became Surveyor General of the Colony.
Camden Head Road	Road leading to Camden Head.
Camden Point Gazetted: 22 Dec 1972	A point in Camden Haven Inlet about 1km NE of Town of Laurieton.
Cameron Falls Gazetted: 4 Dec 1987	Rapids on the Hastings River at the limit of tidal influence, about 4km WNW of Wauchope and 3km NE of Koree Island. Located about 900 metres upstream from the junction with Mortons Creek. See also Camerons crossing.
Cameron Paddock	Located on the Hastings River at Wauchope. Owned by Thomas Wallace. Now part of Randall Street Wauchope.

Cameron Street	Wauchope. Originally known as Wharf Road. Named after Donald Cameron (Crosslands) a close friend of Alexander Bain.
Camerons Bluff Gazetted: 22 Nov 1968	A minor trig. station on Camerons Bluff, about 2km north of Mount Boss, and about 4.8km south south east of Brushy Mountain.
Camerons Camp Gazetted: 22 Aug 2008	A rural place located 1km E of Mount Boss on the Hastings Forest Way within Mount Boss State Forest near Wauchope. Origin: A former timber camp. A prospector and Scottish migrant, named Alec Cameron (d.1935) had his camp there.
Camerons Camp Flora Reserve Gazetted: 2 Mar 1999	A reserve located about 2km SE of Mount Boss and about 3km SSE of Camerons Bluff.
Camerons Crossing	Wauchope area. From the Wauchope side of the Hastings River, a road to Camerons Crossing began approximately half way between Rosewood Road turnoff and the big fig tree on 'Crosslands'. This early road to the crossing continued down the hill and crossed a tributary of the Hastings known as Warrells Creek. Spanning this creek was a high narrow wooden bridge. The road then continued across river flats to the shallows called Camerons Falls. Named after John Cameron's father, Donald Cameron who came from Scotland to settle in Australia. Cameron's Falls was made of flat sandstone rocks dumped at Morton's Creek when the ballast of the ships was no longer required. It afforded a flat crossing across the river at Donald Cameron's property of Crosslands. (Source: A bridge Called Bain and other stories by Gary Bruem).
Camerons Falls	See Cameron Falls and see also Camerons Crossing.
Camp Ridge Road	Queens Lake Forest, west of Bonny Hills.
Campbell Street	Wauchope. Named after James and Annabel Campbell (nee Bain). Annabel inherited a portion of land and built their house next to the school grounds around 1900.
Canberra Guest House	Also known as just the "Canberra", see Panorama Guest House.
Canoblas Place	Port Macquarie. From an Aboriginal word meaning "side of the hill."
Caoulapatamba	Aboriginal native name for Mt. Cairncross.
Captain Achrights Hill	The site where the Beechwood Church and School now stands (see PMN, 27 Oct 1923).

Captain Ackrights Hill	See Captain Achrights Hill.
Carawatha	Farm on the Kew Road, 2km east of Kew.
Carecorara Inlet Gazetted: 29 Jun 1973	A stream rising about 2.5km ENE of the town of Wauchope. It flows generally N for about 2.5km into Caswell Channel near Narrowgut. Previous name Carecorara Creek.
Careys Trail	Mt. Seaview area, extension of Fenwick's Road, north of Oxley Highway.
Carlton	Property 4km from the Port Macquarie Butter Factory - to let. (see PMN 7 Nov 1917).
Carmac Avenue	Stirling Green, Port Macquarie (Thrumster). Named for Lieutenant G. R. Carmac, Acting Commandant of the Port Macquarie penal settlement after the death of Captain Francis Allman in 1824. Laid the foundation stone of St Thomas Church of England in December 1824.
Carrington	John Hibbard (Jnr) of Clifton. Home of W. Nicholls of Hamilton 1910. Farm 2kms north of Oxley Highway, south of Hastings River, near the mouth of the Kings Creek. Residence of Alex Bain Campbell, near Wauchope 1931.
Carrington Bridge	Bridge over King Creek, on the Oxley Highway, just east of Wauchope. The bridge was built in 1893 and opened in 1906 and named after Lord Carrington, Governor of NSW 1885.
Carrington Hotel	Located at Randall Street and Port Lane, Wauchope. Built for Thomas Wallace, 1870-manager James Hyde (Snr), Publican. Others were Arthur Henry, Castor.
Carrington Paddock	On the Hastings River at Wauchope. Owned by Thomas Wallace now part of Randall Street Wauchope.
Carrington Street	Wauchope, named after Sir Charles Robert Wynn Carrington, Marquis of Lincolnshire and Governor of NSW 1859-1890. Also Carrington Lane and Bridge.
Cascade Creek Gazetted: 22 Nov 1968	A partly perennial stream rising about 1.6km SW of Banda Banda trig. station. Originates in the Ballengarra State Forest, runs east into Pipers Creek, west of Kundabung. It flows generally SE for about 6.4km into Wilson River.
Caswell Channel Gazetted: 29 Jun 1973	A channel starting at the junction of Munns Channel and Balyngara Creek and flowing generally S about 8km into the Hastings River. Previous name Anabranch (Hastings River).

Caswells Creek Gazetted: 6 Apr 1973	A watercourse about 10km long. It rises about 4km SSE of Ballengarra trig station and flows generally S then NE by E into Smiths Creek.
Caswells Road	Cooperabung. Runs off the Old Coast road, W of Ballengarra Creek.
Cat Eye Creek	Now Lake Cathie. (see Hastings Shire Gazette 15 Apr 1981). See also Lake Cathie.
Cataract Creek Gazetted: 22 Dec 1972	A partly perennial stream rising about 7km NW of Lorne locality. It flows generally SE for about 6.5km into Upsalls Creek.
Cathabut	W.C. Lindsay purchased this property for himself about 1930. It adjoined the property 'Clunsley' which he jointly owned with his brothers. (see PMN, 30 Jan 1937, p.1).
Catharbit	Property of A. White 1898 - he married in Sydney and returned to a new home in the Port Macquarie area.
Cathi	T.G. Wilson diary 14 Mar 1867: - " Refers to a walk through Cathi paddocks. "
Cathi Marsh	Name mentioned by James Backhouse in 1836 when he went from Lake Innes east to the coast across a logged bridge way.
Cathie Creek Gazetted: 22 Dec 1972	A partly perennial stream rising at Lake Innes and flowing generally SE SSW the S for about 4km into Cathie Lake, and about 1km west of the village of Lake Cathie. In 1843, Annabella Boswell referred to the creek as 'Cati Creek'. (Boswell, A. 1987, 'Annabella Boswell's Journal'). Previous name Cati Creek.
Cati Creek	Name used by Annabella Boswell in her diary 1843, being her name for Cathie Creek.
Cattlebrook	Small creek running east from the lower part of Kooloonbung Creek.
Cavanoughs Creek Gazetted: 10 Jan 1969	A partly perennial stream rising about 2.4km NE of Pappinbarra Junction. It flows generally SSW for about 4km into Pappinbarra River.
Caves Gully Gazetted: 14 Feb 1969	A non-perennial stream rising about 800m east by north of the locality of Innes View. It flows generally NE for about 1.6km into Toms Creek.
Cedar Close	Port Macquarie. Named for the abundant cedar trees that grew in the Hastings.

Cedar Creek (1) Gazetted: 23 Feb 1973	A creek stream rising about 9.5km NW by W of the town of Herons Creek. It originates near Bulls Ground and flows generally SS by E then NE then E for about 11km into Herons Creek. Previous name Cedar Scrub Creek.
Cedar Creek (2) Gazetted: 18 Jan 1969	A partly perennial stream rising on the south eastern slopes of Mount Seaview. It flows generally east by south for about 4.8km into the Hastings River.
Cedar Creek (3) Gazetted: 14 Feb 1969	A non-perennial stream rising about 1km S of Mount Mickey Doran. It flows generally SW for about 1.8km into the Ellenborough River.
Cedar Creek Road	Herons Creek.
Cedar Lodge	Farm on Batar Road, 6km SW of Kendall at Batar.
Cedar Loggers Lane	Trail, runs northwest from Batar.
Cedar Ridge	Farm, W of railway, 1km N of Kendall.
Cedar Scrub	Herons Creek district. So named due to the abundant cedar trees in the area.
Cedar Scrub Creek Gazetted: 4 May 1973	A Gully stream rising about 6.5km NW of the Town of Herons Creek. It flows generally SSE then E for about 2 km into Cedar Creek.
Cedar Vale	Farm on the Right Arm, Pappinbarra Road - 7km from junction. Property 4km N of Pappinbarra Junction, on right arm of Pappinbarra River.
Cells Creek Gazetted: 10 Jan 1969	A mostly perennial stream rising about 1.6km NE of Tobin trig station west of Mt Seaview. It flows generally SW for about 7.2km into Cells River, then Rowley River, then Nowendoc River and finally into the Manning River.
Cells River	In Bulga State Forest runs into Rowley's River, then Nowendoc River and finally into the Manning River.
Chain of Ponds	Progress Committee 1884: - "to open a road from the Manning and New England Road to Blackmans Point, via the "Chain of Ponds" . Property of James and Sarah Martin, 1920 - now owned by Cassegrain Winery 1950. (see also PMN, 26 Nov 1921, p.4).
Chalk Hills	Mr Bain suggested money be requested "to improve road from Chalk Hills to Telegraph Point." on 18 June 1883. (See PMN, 11 Aug 1934, p.8).

Chalmers Street	The street was named before 1936 and originally went between Everard Street to Swift Street. Now it is shorter located between Flynn Street and Swift Street.
Charles Hamey lookout	Peak immediately S of Point Perpendicular, near the mouth of the Camden Haven River.
Chartabuck	Located on the Forbes River near Yarras. Owned by Alexander Kennedy. Also referred to as Katarbuk.
Cheese Tree	Picnic area on Dunbogan Beach near Diamond Head.
Chelsea Place	Named in 1979 by the developer of Savoy Gardens Estate subdivision, Mr. W.J. Kelly. It was named to be in keeping with the English origin of the estate. (see PMN, 18 May 1979).
Christmas Bell Plain Gazetted: 1 Sep 1967	A narrow coastal plain extending from just north of Cathie Creek in the south for 7.2km in a NW direction. It is bounded by the Pacific Ocean on the east and by Cathie Creek and The Lake Swamp on the west. Origin: Name adopted on recommendation of the Council of the Municipality of Port Macquarie in 1967. Named because of the abundant mass of Christmas Bells which flourish on the plain each year. Previous name Cathie Plain.
Church Hill	Later name for Oxley Terrace Port Macquarie. (see History of Port Macquarie p.32). The hill that St. Thomas Church is situated on.
Church Street	This street leads to St. Thomas' Church of England.
Churchill	"About 12, Dr Neild called for me to go to the Lake with him - stayed all night...After dinner took a walk through "Cathie" paddock and "Churchill" to see the sugarcane - some looks well and others but indifferently." See T.G. Wilson Diary 14 Mar 1867.
Churchill Lane	Property of A.H. Churchill Long Flat (see PMN, 28 April 1950 p.6).
Citizens Bridge	Village on Macleod's Creek, on the Lorne-Comboyne Road 1km west of Lorne.
Clairview	Property between Bellangarra and Rollands Plains, north of the road, on the banks of Bril Bril Creek - home of W. Bransdon, August 1888. Station 3km SE of Rollands Plains Road.

Clarefield	Property and location in Rollands Plains on the north bank of the Wilson river. Original grant to William Skottowe Parker in 1831 who named his property Clarefield. The derivation of this name is unknown. Leased by William Hayley in 1842. Property of Dr. Alex Gamack 1899. (see Estate names - Port Macquarie and District. Dawson, 2014).
Clarefield Bridge	In the Rollands Plains district.
Claremont	(1) Farm north of Oxley Highway, south of the Hastings River, west of Rawdon Island Road in the Ennis area. (2) Farm, south of Oxley Highway, just before Long Flat. (3) Farm south of Oxley Highway, 3km E of Yarras.
Clarence Street	Port Macquarie. Named 1831, after the Duke of Clarence, brother of King William IV. (see A Town Called Port, John Moyes).
Clareville	First named in 1862 when it formed part of property taken by various members of the Bain family who had migrated from Loch Clare in Scotland. The property dates back to 1840 when it was known as Johnsons Flat and was the first cleared land at Wauchope. Part of the property was subdivided into 24 building blocks adjacent to Bain Street in 1983. (See PMN, 21 Jan 1983). James Bain and his wife lived here from 1911. (see PMN, 11 Jan. 1973, p.1).
Clareville Avenue	Wauchope. Named for Bain's 'Clareville' farm.
Clay Gully Road	West of Old Coast Road, west of Kundabung.
Cleghorns Creek	Originates 35km NW of Mt. Seaview, runs into Hastings River north of Mt. Seaview.
Cliff Road	Possibly an earlier name for Lovers Walk, Port Macquarie. Lovers Walk was an unsealed track south of Windmill hill previously called Mill Street. Became part of Pacific Drive.

Clifton	(1) Original land bought by Henry Fancourt White about 14 Jun 1837. Of 56.5 acres-he sold portions to James Wilson and Wm Stokes-56 acres obtained by Wm Stokes, passed to Jas. Kendall Stokes, sold 23 Aug 1850 to Chas Kerr – to A.C. Innes 29 Feb 1854-later to Rev O'Reilly, Cummins in 1882. John Hibbard (Snr). John Hibbard (Jnr) built a new house there 1911. Of 56.5 acres-he sold portions to James Wilson and Wm Stokes-56 acres obtained by Wm Stokes, passed to Jas. Kendall Stokes, sold 23 Aug 1850 to Chas Kerr – to A.C. Innes 29 Feb 1854-later to Rev O'Reilly, Cummins in 1882. John Hibbard (Snr). John Hibbard (Jnr) built a new house there 1911. (2) Property on the Macleay River road, near Port Macquarie. Fred Augustus Bell lived there 1869/70 Electoral Roll - plus "Melford" station. Home of Surveyor H.F. White 1837 (see Hist. of Port Macquarie p. 113, for description p135). Once owned by Judge Charles E. R. Murray 31 Jan 1923.
Clifton Drive	Port Macquarie. Originally the land was purchased in 1837 and after a number of owners, John Hibbard Junior built a house there in 1911 and called it 'Clifton', later to be the site of Lourdes Nursing Home.
Clovelly	Property of A. Reid, Ballengarra.
Clover Farm	Property of Mrs. S. Trotter of Pappinbarra, 1926.
Clover Hill	Farm between Oxley Highway and Hastings River opposite Koree Island about 6km west of Wauchope near Crossroads cemetery. Property 14km north-west of Beechwood on north side of Pappinbarra, on the west bank of Pappinbarra River. (see PMN, 25 Jan 1919) - L. Rudder. Property of S. Hopkins Pappinbarra (see PMN, 26 Aug 1922).
Clover Hills	About 16.1km from Beechwood. Home of Sarah Trotter (see People & Places Vol.3, p.17).
Clunes Leigh	Property of Major Innes 1280 acres (see Hist. of Port Macquarie p.109). James Henry lived there on the 1869/70 electoral roll. W.C. Lindsay property, Ellenborough (see Port Macquarie News 5 Mar 1921).
Clunesby	See Clunsley (source: William Lindsay 1930 Electoral Roll)
Clunesley	See Clunsley
Clunsley	Property managed by William Campbell Lindsay, Ellenborough (see PMN, 5 Mar 1921, p.5), purchased by the three Lindsay Brothers (see PMN, 30 Jan 1937, p.1). Has also been spelt Clunesley - Neville family home Kindee district 1863 (see PMN, 27 Oct 1923).

Coachers Creek	Farm on Doyle's River.
Coal Wharf Reserve Gazetted: 5 Feb 1993	A reserve facing Hastings River. Origin: Named after the coal wharf located within the reserve which was used to load steam powered ships which called into port with coal.
Cobcroft Cascades Gazetted: 23 Apr 2004	A series of waterfalls on the Cobcrofts Creek where it meets the Hastings River. It is situated approx 1.8km S of Mount Werrikimbe.
Cobcroft Road	In the Yarrowitch area, joins Fenwick's Road.
Cobcrofts Creek Gazetted: 22 Nov 1968	Yarrowitch area. A partly perennial stream rising about 2.4km south east of Paddys Hill. It has a meandering course generally south east for about 11.2km into the Hastings River.
Cobrabald	Recreation area situated in Mount Boss State Forest, a short drive from Wauchope. Includes 'Wild Bull' and 'The Bluff' camping areas. Adjacent to the Wilson River.
Cobrabald Creek Gazetted: 6 Apr 1973	A stream rising about 9km NW of the Locality of Bellangry. It flows generally NNW for about 4km into Wilson River, in the Bellangry Forest area.
Cochranes Hut	The Hatch - Mr Brooks there c1900.
Cockerawombeeba Creek Gazetted: 10 Jan 1969	A mostly perennial stream rising about 2.4km S of Brushy Mountain. It flows generally SW for about 16km into the Forbes River.
Cockerawombeeba Flora Reserve Gazetted: 3 Dec 1999	A flora reserve within Mount Boss State Forest, and situated beside Cockerawombeeba Creek. Located about 2km W of Mount Boss.
Cockspur	Mt. Kokomerica.
Cockspur Creek	Runs into Rowley's River, Bulga State Forest.
Cogo Gazetted: 6 Apr 1973	A parish in the County of Macquarie (lands administrative division). Upper Rollands Plains area.
Cold Knob Road	Runs EW through Lorne State Forest.
Cold Nob Gazetted: 23 Mar 1973	A hill about 3.5km SE of Mount Tirrandebundeba.
Coleraine	Property on the south bank of the Hastings River, just north of the Oxley Highway, and 1km west of the bridge over King Creek. Owned by Isaac Andrews.

Colling Pass Gazetted: 16 Apr 1993	A defile in the road from Boorganna (SW of Comboyne) to Elands, midway between these two points. Road linking Bulga to Comboyne about 11 miles long-cost £27,300. A plaque in honour of Mr Eddie Colling erected - Colling blazed the trail over the steep section at Sugar Loaf Mountain. Previous name Collins Pass.
Collings Road	Runs east-west, west of Comboyne.
Colonels Bridge	Under Huntingdon Notes- (see PMN, 20 Jun 1908: - " Mr. Reid building a house near Colonels Bridge (his property fronts the main road) (see PMN, 15 Apr 1911) " And a caution notice put on Colonels Creek Bridge. "
Colonels Creek	Named after Colonel Gray who farmed in Huntingdon in the 1860's. In earlier times it was known as the "Constable's Hut" because the police camped there.
Colonels Hill	Property on the north side of the Oxley Highway, at Huntingdon.
Comboyne Gazetted: 22 Dec 1972	A trig. station on Mt. Comboyne about 5.5km SE of the village of Byabarra. Origin: From an aboriginal word meaning female kangaroo.
Comboyne Gazetted: 10 Jan 1969	A parish (lands administrative division).
Comboyne Gazetted: 16 Apr 1993	A town locality about 8km ESE of Innes View and about 6km SE of Innes Trig. Station. Origin: Aboriginal word derived from Wambuyn meaning place of kangaroos. (See Oceania; Vol. XXXIV, No.4, p.292; June, 1964). Also: 'female (Aboriginal, kangaroo)'. (McCarthy; 1963). Was also spelt Comboin or Komboin.
Comboyne Cemetery Gazetted: 12 Sep 1980	A cemetery about 5km NE of Comboyne and about 7km SE of Innes T.S.
Comboyne Plateau Gazetted: 14 Feb 1969	A plateau at an elevation of approximately 655.3m on which the town of Comboyne stands. It has an area of about 52 sq km.
Comboyne Public School Gazetted: 12 Sep 1980	School is in Hill Street, Comboyne.
Comboyne Public School Gazetted: 10 Jan 1969	A primary school in the town of Comboyne. It was replaced by the school in Hill Street which has the same name.

Comboyne Showground Gazetted: 12 Sep 1980	A reserve about 1km SES of Comboyne and about 3km NW of Comboyne East.
Comboyne Street	Kendall. Originally named Main Street until 1947 (Source: The Early Dwellings and Residents 1860-1960 Kendall)
Comboyne West Gazetted: 16 Apr 1993	A rural locality about 1km W of Comboyne and about 6km SE of Innes View.
Comer	Property on the Forbes River, 8km from Beechwood. (see PMN, 17 Mar 1906) and 5km west of Wauchope.
Comfort Hill	Station, west of the Pacific Highway, where the Maria Creek crosses it, just north of Kundabung.
Commandants Farm	Government vegetable farm at Ballengarra during the convict era.
Condon Avenue	Named after John Condon who arrived in Port Macquarie as a member of a pilot crew. The Condon family came to Port Macquarie in the late 1870's. James (John) Condon became a building contractor and he his sons built many of the old buildings. The Condons had a home and vineyard located in the area of Condon Avenue.
Condons Boarding House	Located in High Street Wauchope in 1914-1915. (see People & places Vol.3, p.28).
Condons Hotel	John Condon's "Commercial" Hotel, Horton St. Port Macquarie.
Connection Creek	Small creek, west of Maria River Road, SW of Crescent Head.
Convict Road	W of Old Coast Road, W of Kundabung.
Cook Street	North Haven. Named after Graeme Cook, who was secretary of the urban committee which was set up in the early 1960s by the former Hastings Shire Council to assist with the development of towns within the shire.
Cookamerica	Upper Hastings area. E. Cooper there in 3 Aug 1895.
Cooks Road	6km west of Ellenborough Falls.
Cool Haven	Property 1km north along Old Pacific Highway from Telegraph Point, now known as Cooperabung River (see PMN, 24 Oct 1908, p.2).
Coolabatamba	Aboriginal name for Mt. Cairncross.

Coolapatamba Creek Gazetted: 6 Apr 1973	A stream rising about 4.5km ESE of the locality of Bellangry. It flows generally W for about 4.5km into Morton s Creek near Bella.
Coolenbang Creek	See Kooloongbung Creek. See Shoal (Arm) Creek.
Coolenberg	Old home built on the corner of Lake Road and Hill Street. James Butler from Sydney purchased 2.5 acres in 1857 and built the home in 1860, naming it Coolenberg. Nurse Bailey opened a hospital there (see PMN, 13 May 1911).
Coolfinty	House belonging to Messrs Graham and McKenzie located on the Wilson and Maria Rivers. Later owned by Dr. McIntyre.
Coolgi Creek	In Bulga State Forest.
Coolgi Road	Bulga State Forest area.
Coombes Gap Gazetted: 14 Nov 1980	A saddle near Mount Seaview about 6km NE by E of Sheep Station Trig. Station and about 7km E by N of Glen Oxley. Previous name The Gap.
Coombes Plantation	Forestry plantation off Birdwood Road. Several Coombes graves there.
Coonlonbung Creek	See Kooloonbung Creek.
Cooperabung Gazetted: 16 Apr 1993	A locality about 4km SW of Cooperabung Hill and about 4km NNW of the town of Telegraph Point. Previous name Red Hill.
Cooperabung Creek Gazetted: 6 Apr 1973	A watercourse about 9km long. It rises about 2km WNW of Allen Hill and flows generally N then E then S into Maria River near the confluence with the Wilson River.
Cooperabung Hill Gazetted: 29 Jun 1973	A hill about 5km NE by N of Allen Hill and about 4km NE of Cooperabung locality. Previous name Cooperabung Mountain.
Coorabin	Farm east of the Pacific Highway, east of Herons Creek timber mill.
Coral Street	North Haven. So named because of the Coral trees that once lined the street.
Cornbury Park	Property about 2km upstream of Telegraph Point, on the Rollands Plains Road - Clement Stewart there in 1875 - (see PMN, 1 Dec 1888) and William Cutler 1921 (see PMN, 29 Oct. 1921 p.4). - Provisional school established there in 1875.
Corner House	Port Macquarie, P. Hallett's Store, corner Horton and William Street. (see PMN, 3 Jun 1922). C. T. Kennett, Port Macquarie - sold 12 Nov 1921.

Corrigans Road	West of Herons Creek township. The road leading to Honora Corrigan's property.
Cosaal	Farm on the Old Coast Road, 5km west of Kundabung.
Costigans Road	Runs off Oxley Highway 3km east of Yarras. The road led to the property of W.N. Costigan.
Coto Cottage	On Pappinbarra Road, NW of Wauchope (Birdwood) farm, on Fraser's Creek road, 4km NW of Beechwood.
Coucal Close	Port Macquarie. Innes Lake estate. Named after a native bird.
Coulfintry	A property North of Wilson River near Telegraph Point. Coulfintry was a property whose precise boundaries cannot be pinned down. For some years it was the residence of William Mackenzie and Robert Graham to whom Annabella Innes made a number of references in her journal. (See 'Estate Names of the Port Macquarie and Hastings region (1830-1840)' by Tony Dawson.)
Cowal Creek Gazetted: 29 Jun 1973	A stream rising about 10.5km NW by W of the locality of Bellangry. It flows generally SSE for about 13 km into Pappinbarra Creek. Previous name Cowral Creek.
Cowal Creek Road	Runs west from Bellangry Road, just south of Bellangry.
Cowangarra	Bagnoo. Named after Lieutenant Cowan.
Cowangara Gazetted: 10 Jan 1969	A parish (lands administrative division).
Cowar	Located at Yarras. Thomas Nicholson a miner was here in 1894. (see PMN, 3 Oct 1894, p6).
Cowar Estate	Location in the upper Hastings river area near Grasstree creek. Property of J.H. Hill, lessee in Apr 1896.
Cowarra	Parish of Kindee. Locality 15km north of Yarras, near junction of Sawyers Creek and Forbes River. Owned by Major Innes.
Cowara Close	King Creek. Runs off Sarah's Cres.
Cowarra Creek Gazetted: 4 May 1973	A partly perennial stream rising about 4.5km NW by W of the village of Bonny Hills. It flows generally NNW then NE by E for about 11.5 km into Cathie Creek. Previous name Ten Mile Creek.
Cowarra State Forest Gazetted: 22 Dec 1972	State Forest in Wauchope forestry district area about 1267 hectares.

Cowarral	Farm on Forbes River, 4km NW Beechwood. Purchased in 1840 by Major Innes who established a dairy on the property. (see HSG 17 Jan 1980, p4).
Cowdenbeath	Property 4-5km south of Lorne on the Stewart's River Road.
Cowdery Street	Wauchope. Cowdery & Cowdery Surveyors.
Cowderys Bay	A location on the Hastings River above Bain Bridge and below Camerons Falls. Local landholder Zac Cowdery. (see Hastings Gazette 'Colonial Week supplement' 1981).
Coyles Road	West of Pacific Highway, SW of Lake Innes in Herons Creek area - runs to Kings Creek.
Crayfish Gully Gazetted: 14 Feb 1969	A non-perennial stream rising about 4.4km SE of Mount Botumboin. It flows generally SE for about 800m into the Thone River. Previous name Crayfish Creek.
Crescent Arm Gazetted: 28 Aug 1992	Port Macquarie. A canal located between Francis Street and Cornwallis Close.
Crescent Head	Town and headland about 25km north of Port Macquarie in Kempsey LGA.
Crestwood	Station north of Wilson River, just north of Farrewell's road, NW of Telegraph Point.
Crestwood Estate	Residential estate in Port Macquarie off Ocean Drive.
Crisp Street	Port Macquarie. Originally part of Everard Street. Named after Alfred Leslie Crisp, Mayor of Port Macquarie 1950-51, 1957-60, 1962-66 and involved with the R.S.L. and other community groups.
Croppies Hill (alt spelling Croppys)	A hill about 14.5km by road WSW of the town of Port Macquarie. It is surmounted by Sancrox Trig. Station. Near site of Rawdon Island ferry. Escaped convicts, "croppies", were pursued here in 1821 and a skirmish ensued between Protestant and Catholic soldiers. A soldier, James Vaughan, was shot and killed in the incident and is buried at the Allmans Hill buring ground. (see PMN, 12 Feb 1921, p.4).
Cross Street	Port Macquarie, named after Rev. John Cross who arrived in Port Macquarie in 1828 as the first Rector of St Thomas Church. He dedicated the church on the 24th February 1828 and remained as Minister in Charge until 1858. (see A Town called Port, John Moyes).

Crossing Creek Gazetted: 10 Jan 1969	A non-perennial stream rising about 3.2km SE of Marowin Mountain. It flows generally SW for about 2.4km into the Wilson River.
Crosslands Gazetted: 16 Apr 1993	A locality about 4km E of Beechwood and about 1km NW of Letterewe locality. Property originally held by William Cross and his wife Ann, 2km NW of Wauchope, on the south bank of the Hastings River on the Beechwood Road. William Cross sold the land to Bain and Campbell. (see Hist. of Port Macquarie p.139). Donald Cameron called his property Crosslands because he owned land on both sides of the Hastings and people coming down the Old Wool Road could cross there as they went north.
Crosslands Cemetery	Near Bain Bridge on the Beechwood Road. Name evolved as it was a place where people from both sides of the Hastings River could come to be buried.
Crossyard	Mention in a court case between B .O'Doherty's and Albert Goodwin in the Port Macquarie News. Location unknown. (see PMN, 18 Jun 1904, p.2).
Crottys Plains	On the south bank of the Wilson River. (see History of Port Macquarie p.114).
Crummer Street	Port Macquarie. Named after Major James Henry Crummer, who was an early Police Magistrate in Port Macquarie. He served in the British Army in a number of battles including Waterloo.
Crystal Springs	Farm south of Hastings River, Bagnoo area, 3km south of 'Wallabrie.'
Cullen Close	Port Macquarie, named after the stately Scottish home of Earl of Seafield.
Cullen Country	Farm at the end of Sullivan's Road, 4km west of Lorne.
Cumbertine Creek	T.G. Wilson diary 31 Aug 1867:- "Got home to Glenesk about 6 pm, rather tired with our day's excursion - George brought back "Dobbin" to take to Cumbertine Creek on Monday." Location unknown.
Cundle Creek Gazetted: 6 Apr 1973	A stream rising about 9km NW of the locality of Bellangry. It flows generally SE for about 3.5km into Bril Bril Creek.
Cungebop	Farm on Bulli Creek, Byabarra area, 6km south of Byabarra.
Cunjevoi Creek Gazetted: 22 Nov 1968	A non-perennial stream rising about 2.4km SE of Pigeon Top trig. station. It flows generally NE for about 3.6km into the Wilson River.

Cunjevou Rock	In Bonny Hills area - (see Colonial Week Supplement. Oct 1991).
Cunning Street	Port Macquarie. Named after Thomas Cunning who came to Port Macquarie about 1860 and opened a butchery. He lived at Tacking Point. The area was developed in the 1960s.
Curragai	Farm on north bank, Upper Pappinbarra area.
Cutarbit	(See Macleay Argus 3 Oct 1984, p.6), see Chartabuck.
Cutty Creek Gazetted: 23 Feb 1973	A partly perennial stream rising about 4.5km north of the town of Herons Creek. It flows generally SE for about 7km into Herons Creek.
Cutty Creek Road	On the north side of Herons Creek.