

V

Vailima	Residence of C.G. Orr chemist and Alderman at Port Macquarie 1890s in Church St. The name of a village in Samoa and also the house that the author Robert Louis Stevenson lived in.
Valley View	Farm 3km S of Lorne.
Velrose	The vineyard of Eugene Marie Veron Port Macquarie 1880s.
Vendul Crescent	Port Macquarie. Named after John Venour Dulhunty one of the surveyors responsible for the Oxley Highway and later a major developer of many residential estates in Port Macquarie.
Verhey	Station 3km N of Pappinbarra Junction on the left arm of Pappinbarra Creek.
Victoria Downs	Farm off King Creek Road east of King Creek near the bridge over Kings Creek.
Victoria Valley	Farm west of the Maria River Road 10km SE of Kundabung.
Villa Costalota	Farm on Algona Road west of the Pacific Highway west of Watson Taylors Lake.
Villers View	Redbank area. Property N of the Hastings River west of the railway line off the road to Beechwood 2km N of Wauchope at Redbank.
Vincents Plains	On the north bank of the Wilson River (see History of Port Macquarie p.144). Mentioned with Rollands Plains in article in "Empire" Sydney Morning Herald 1840.
Vinegar Creek	Bonny Hills area - Tom Bartlett had land there 1932.
Virginia	House in William Street to Church St. Port Macquarie overlooking the beach (see PMN, 16 May 1914) - a brick house, iron roof, 7 rooms for sale.