KILLED IN ACTION.

Word has been received by Mrs. S. Elford, The Hatch, that her brother, Private Donald Fraser Gibson, has been killed in action abroad. Private Gibson was educated at Port Macquarie Public School, his parents at the time residing at North Shore, on Mr. J. P. McIntyre's property. He enlisted at Warriewood, near Manly, where his parents now reside. At the last meeting of the W.C.F., a letter was read from this soldier acknowledging a parcel forwarded by that body. Duty nobly done, he has paid the supreme sacrifice, and his name will rank with others who travel the same path of destiny. We sympathise with the bereaved parents and family in their hour of sorrow.

PMN 9th May 1941

TWO A.I.F. MEN MARRIED.

The weddings of two members of the A.I.F. who arrived in Kyogle on leave after active service abroad were celebrated by Rev. R. R. Martin, in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Kyogle. For each of the ceremonies the church was decorated with white chrysanthemums, dahlias and roses.

Large Union Jacks and Australian flags also were used in the church decorations.

Private James Edward Hall was married to Miss Liliias Mary Fleming, while Private William Marshall Aitken was married to Miss Florence Lucy Irene Thompson.

At the close of each ceremony, the couples, headed by Piper W. McNaughton, Jr., who played the "Highland Weddings," passed through a guard of honour formed by the other A.I.F. men on leave from the church door to the entrance gate.

HALL-FLEMING.

For her wedding, Miss Fleming, who is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Fleming, of Greenwood, Kyogle, chose a gown of white lace, with a full train, edged with killed net. Her cut tulle veil was held in place with white camellias, and she carried an attractive bouquet of white flowers.

Given away by her father, she was attended by Miss Florence Thompson as bridesmaid. The latter wore a frock of green lace with a full skirt, with a green net veil attached to a topknot of red rose buds.

The bridegroom, who is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Hall, Port Macquarie, was attended by Private W. M. Aitken as best man.

A reception was held at the "Fairymount" Cafe, the reception room being decorated with white streamers, silver bells and flags. The tables were adorned with pink and red roses. The three-tier wedding cake was made by the bride's mother and decorated by Peters & Co.

The guests were received by Mrs. Fleming, who chose a frock of navy blue satin-backed crepe, with an embossed front, a navy blue felt hat and navy accessories.

Leaving for the honeymoon, which was spent at Port Macquarie, the bride wore a frock of blue satin-backed crepe, with navy accessories. —Contributed.
