

We recommend these great reads in

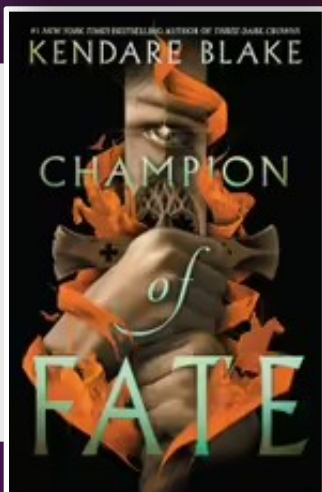

NEW YA FICTION

October/November 2023

In Limbo [Graphic novel] by Deb JJ Lee

A debut YA graphic memoir about a Korean-American girl's coming-of-age story--and a coming home story--set between a New Jersey suburb and Seoul, South Korea.

Champion of Fate by Kendare Blake

From #1 New York Times bestselling author Kendare Blake comes a new epic duology following a young woman's training to shepherd a princely hero to victory. Perfect for fans of Alexandra Bracken and Stephanie Garber.

Every Exquisite Thing by Laura Steven

A feminist YA horror-thriller retelling of The Picture of Dorian Gray by the bestselling author of The Society for Soulless Girls. A searing exploration of beauty, identity, and what the pursuit of perfection costs young women.

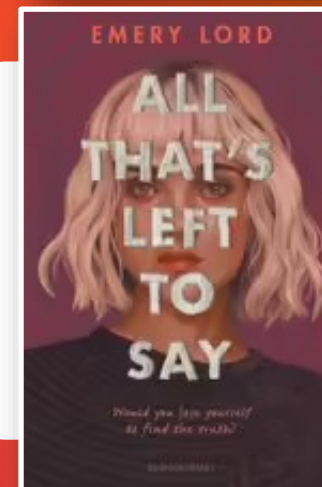

A British Girl's Guide to Hurricanes & Heartbreak by Laura Taylor Namey

In this highly anticipated companion to the New York Times bestseller and Reese Witherspoon x Hello Sunshine Book Club YA Pick A Cuban Girl's Guide to Tea and Tomorrow, Flora Maxwell heads to Miami to find a path for her future . . . and finds her heart along the way.

Let's Never Speak of this Again by Megan Williams

Winner of the 2022 Text Prize, Let's Never Speak of This Again is the big-hearted YA debut of the year, celebrating the depths and strengths of friendship through all of life's ups and downs.

All that's left to say by Emery Lord

Hannah MacLaren has grown up between two worlds: scraping by happily with her single, working mum and avoiding the Maryland upper crust in the next town over, where her wealthy cousin and best friend Sophie lives. The plan is to get out. But just before junior year begins, Sophie overdoses at a party, leaving behind a shocked community and bereft best friends. As the haze of grief begins to clear, Hannah teams up with Sophie's other best friend, Gabi, to find out what happened that fateful night.

Doughnuts and Doom [Graphic novel] by Balazs Lorinczi

Being a teenage witch-or rock star-is tougher than it looks! But maybe enemies can become friends...or more? Flying brooms and electric guitars set hearts aflame in this fantastically fizzy graphic novel.

Her Radiant Curse by Elizabeth Lim

One must fall for the other to rise.

Sisterhood bonds and courage are tested in the new tale from the New York Times bestselling author of Six Crimson Cranes and The Dragon's Promise.

We Didn't Think it Through by Gary Lonesborough

From the author of the award-winning The Boy from the Mish, comes a compelling coming-of-age YA novel about seventeen-year-old Jamie Langton finding his future and navigating the challenges of racism, family and friendship in a small Australian town.

Chalice of the Gods [#6 Percy Jackson & the Olympians] by Rick Riordan

The original heroes from The Lightning Thief are reunited for their biggest challenge yet- getting Percy to college when the gods are standing in his way.

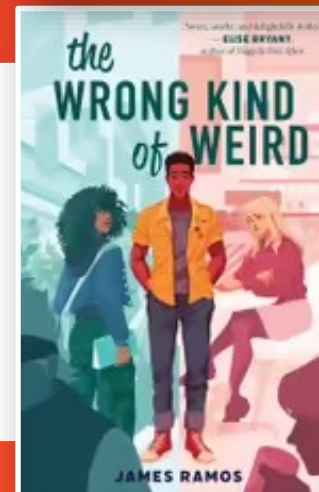

The Love Report [Graphic novel] by BeKa

BFFs Grace and Lola try to unravel the mystery of romance with a plan to observe, study, and analyse the ways of love at their middle school in the first book in this addictive graphic novel series.

How to Find a Missing Girl by Victoria Wlosok

For fans of A Good Girl's Guide to Murder and Veronica Mars, this whip-smart YA debut crime thriller follows a sapphic detective agency seeking the truth behind a growing trail of missing girls in their hometown ...

The Wrong Kind of Weird by James Ramos

Cameron Carson has a secret. A secret with the power to break apart his friend group. Cameron, member of the Geeks and Nerds United club, has been secretly hooking up with student council president, cheerleader, theatre enthusiast, and all-around queen bee Karla Ortega since the summer. What was meant to be a summer fling between coffee shop coworkers has now evolved into a senior-year entanglement, where Karla isn't intending on blending their friend groups anytime soon.

Borderland by Graham Akhurst

Borderland is a heart-pounding horror gothic that follows Jono on an epic quest to find himself in the face of unbelievable challenges. Graham Akhurst, the brilliant mind behind this coming-of-age gem, is a Fulbright scholar from the Kokomini of Northern Queensland. Brace yourself for a fresh, mind-bending tale exploring Indigenous identity, the impact of colonization, and what happens when you take a stand.

Unholy Terrors by Lyndall Clipstone

A bloodstained tale of a girl torn between her vows and her heart, where falling in love may be the deepest sin of all. A captivating and darkly romantic YA fantasy, perfect for fans of Lynette Noni and Sarah J. Maas.