

GRAPHIC NOVELS!

At the Library

mnclibrary.org.au

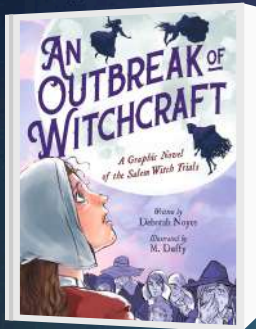

Reserve your favourites!

Spy X Family Vol. 1 by Tatsuya Endo

Master spy Twilight is unparalleled when it comes to dangerous undercover missions but when he receives the ultimate assignment to get married and have a kid he may finally be in over his head! Twilight has his work cut out for him procuring both a wife and a child for his mission to infiltrate an elite private school. What he doesn't know is that the wife he's chosen is an assassin and the child he's adopted is a telepath!

SERIES

An Outbreak of Witchcraft by Deborah Noyes

A gripping and visually arresting journey into the heart of the Salem witch trials. This graphic novel captures the haunting atmosphere and intense paranoia that swept through Salem Massachusetts from 1692 to 1693. Journey into how it all began in this true to life look at how lies became facts, friends turned to foes and loved ones turned to enemies.

Tokyo Ghoul:re Vol. 1-16 by Sui Ishida
The Tokyo Ghoul sequel series!

Haise Sasaki has been tasked with teaching Qs Squad how to be outstanding Investigators but his assignment is complicated by the troublesome personalities of his subordinates and his own uncertain grasp of his Ghoul powers. Can he pull this ragtag group together as a team or will Qs Squad's first assignment be their last?

SERIES

The Princess and the Grilled Cheese Sandwich by Deya Muniz

A romantic comedy about mistaken identity, true love and grilled cheese! Lady Camembert wants to live life on her own terms but the law states that unmarried women cannot inherit. When her father passes away she disguises herself as Count Camembert and moves to the Kingdom's capital city. But it's hard to keep a low profile when beautiful Princess Brie catches her attention!

The Quiet and the Loud by Helena Fox

George's life is loud. On the water though, with everything hushed above and below she is steady, silent. Then her estranged Dad says he needs to talk and everything is a blaring, blazing mess. Could Calliope the girl who has just cartwheeled into George's world be her calm among the chaos? A novel about the contours of friendship, family and forgiveness.

The Iron Raven by Julie Kagawa

Wicked faeries and fantastic danger... welcome to book one of the new trilogy in New York Times bestselling author Julie Kagawa's Iron Fey fantasy series. Infamous prankster Puck finally has a chance to tell his story and stand with allies new and old to save the Faery world. A must read for fans of Holly Black and Cassandra Clare!

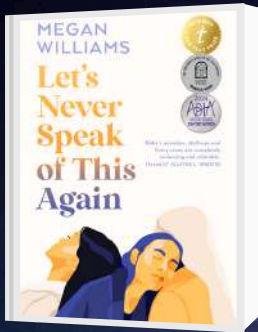

SERIES

Saltwater Boy by Bradley Christmas

Heartfelt and poignant, this coming of age story explores father-son relationships with themes of preserving the past and environmental care. When his Dad goes to jail Matthew and his mum move to the coast to renovate her late father's house. He strikes up a friendship with Old Bill, an Indigenous man who becomes a father figure to him. When his Dad gets out on parole Matthew's newfound peace is fractured and he struggles to navigate his evolving relationships.

Let's Never Speak of This Again by Megan Williams

Life is pretty good for sixteen-year-old Abby. Okay, her grandma has dementia so not everything is perfect but it is manageable with her best friend Ella by her side. The arrival of new girl Chloe and her inclusion in the friendship group throws up some challenges and when tragedy strikes Ella's family, Abby has to re-evaluate her own feelings and work out what friendship really means.

The Girl With No Reflection by Keshe Chow

Ying Yue believes in love so when the royal matchmaker selects her to wed the crown prince Ying hopes that love is exactly what awaits her. However the family is notoriously reclusive, rarely leaving their walled palace and rumors swirl about previous royal brides disappearing. So when Ying discovers the dark truth the royal family has been hiding for centuries her whole world is shaken.

A Hunger of Thorns #1 by Lili Wilkinson

Be swept up in this witchy Victorian tale about forbidden magic and missing girls who don't need handsome princes to rescue them. Maude is a daughter of witches in a time when magic has been reduced to glamour patches and psychic energy drinks found in supermarkets. Her best friend Odette has been on the hunt for forbidden magic but now she's missing and everyone is sure she's dead. Everyone except Maude.

The Heretics Guide to Homecoming Books 1 & 2 by Sienna Tristen

This two part series is a sumptuous, slow-burning and mesmerising fantasy read. Ronoah is marked by the gods to be a trailblazer, meant to change the world but he is crippled with anxiety and self-doubt. Until he runs smack bang into charismatic, confusing and hypnotic Reilin who whisks Ronoah up into a cross-continental pilgrimage to the most sacred place on the planet.

Blind Spot by Robyn Dennison

When Dale stumbles into a bedroom at a party and sees something amiss he backs away and runs. He's pretty drunk but he knows what he saw. Should he have said or done something? These questions haunt him and he doesn't know how to make things right. A raw and unflinching exploration of challenging themes including consent, substance use and navigating sexuality and relationships.

Return to Sender by Lauren Draper

Seventeen year old Brodie has returned to her hometown to live with her eccentric grandmother above the last remaining Dead Letter Office - the place letters go when no ones claims them. Soon, Brodie is consumed by an unsolved mystery when she discovers the unclaimed letters of a group of teens who vanished. A layered and compelling mystery about family, first love and one town's tragedies.

Inkflower by Suzy Zail

A gritty novel based on a true story about family secrets, hope and healing. Lisa's father has six months to live and a story to tell about a boy sent to Auschwitz. It's a story he has kept hidden until now but Lisa doesn't want to hear it because she has secrets too. No one at school knows she is Jewish or that her dad is sick. Not even her boyfriend but that's all about to change and so is she.

Nightbirds #1 by Kate J Armstrong

In this fantasy realm the magic of women is outlawed but four girls with unusual powers have the chance to change it all and emerge from the shadows to determine their own fates. Fiercely feminist and set in an intoxicating world full of speakeasies with magic cocktails, glamour and handsome rogue alchemists, this fascinating world is full of whispered secrets and political intrigue.